Forecast For Highland & Eilean Siar
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Tuesday 29 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Mainly dry and bright on Wednesday, northeast staying cloudy.

This Evening and Tonight:
Western Isles and the northeast seeing low cloud and some occasional drizzle. Wester Ross, Lochaber and Badenoch will have a dry night with clear periods. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Wednesday:
Northeast cloudy, a little light rain possible at first. Elsewhere overnight low cloud burning off to leave a dry day with some hazy sunshine, although Lewis dull until afternoon. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
The end of the week looks to be fair with sunny intervals and light winds. A threat of low cloud for east on Friday and Saturday, showers possible on Saturday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.